ORDER

(Passed on 12th of October, 2006)

The original application was filed before the State Administrative Tribunal, Bench at Raipur, impugning the transfer order dated 26-12-2001 (Annexure A-1), whereby the petitioner, who was working on the post of Assistant Professor at Government P.G. College, Dhamtari, was transferred to the Government P.G. College, Kanker.

2. While admitting the petition, the Tribunal, by its order dated 9-1-2002, granted status quo with regard to the posting of the petitioner as on 4-1-2002. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that by virtue of the interim order, the petitioner is continuing on the same place of posting, i.e., Government P.G. College, Dhamtari.

3. As a matter of fact, the petitioner has got the final relief by way of interim order and the petitioner has been on the same place for more than four years. The petitioner could not continue at one place forever.

4. It is well settled principle of law that transfer is an incident of service and it is for the employer to decide as to where a particular officer/employee be posted keeping in view public interest as well as administrative exigency. This Court has limited jurisdiction to interfere with the transfer matters and this Court can interfere only with the case of proved mafa fide, non-competence of authority passing the transfer order and transfer order not being in conformity with the rules and regulations. In the facts and circumstances of the case, it is not necessary to examine validity of the transfer order at this stage. However, the respondents - authorities are directed not to insist on compliance of the impugned transfer order dated 26-12-2001

(Annexure A-1).

5. This petition has become infructuous with the passage of time. Accordingly, the petition is dismissed as having become infructuous. However, the respondents - authorities are at liberty to pass appropriate order for posting the petitioner in public interest and administrative exigency, in accordance with law. No order as to costs.
